

Perception & Cognition in World Philosophies

International Philosophical Workshop

K r a k ó w , 9 . 0 6 – 1 0 . 0 6 . 2 0 1 9

Sunday, 9.06, room 337

14:00–15:15 Welcome note by Marzenna JAKUBCZAK, Pedagogical University of Cracow

•Victoria LYSENKO, Institute of Philosophy, Russian Academy of Sciences

Dignāga's criticism of the Sāṃkhya's doctrine of perception

15:30–16:30 Chaired by Anna KARNAT, Pedagogical University of Cracow

•Asha MUKHERJEE, Visva-Bharati University, India

Cognition of value, freedom and predictability

16:45–17:45 Chaired by Iwona MILEWSKA, Jagiellonian University, Poland

•Rocco CESTOLA, University of Roma "La Sapienza", Italy

Śabda as a cittavṛtti or mental event: Language and sphoṭa in the Yogaśāstra of Patñajali

Monday, 10.06, room 337

10:00–11:00 Chaired by Paweł SAJDEK, Pedagogical University of Cracow

•Douglas L. BERGER, Leiden University, the Netherlands

Vācaspatiśra on the contributions of imagination to perception

11:15–12:15 Chaired by Roger MELIN, Dalarna University College, Sweden

•Monika KIRLOSKAR-STEINBACH, University of Konstanz, Germany

Relational knowing and the study of world philosophie

13:30–14:00 Chaired by Wojciech HANUSZKIEWICZ, Pedagogical University of Cracow

•Prakriti MUKHERJEE, India (formely CSC scholar at Beijing Language and Culture University, China)

Confucius' concept of human: through cognition and perception

14:00–15:00 Chaired by Urszula CHOWANIEC, Andrzej Frycz Modrzewski Krakow University

ROUND TABLE DISCUSSION

Uniwersytet Pedagogiczny

im. Komisji Edukacji Narodowej w Krakowie

Instytut Filozofii i Socjologii

ul. Podchorążych 2, s. 337

ARGUMENT
BIANNUAL PHILOSOPHICAL JOURNAL

<http://www.argument-journal.eu>